

维多利亚省中华协会
Chinese Association of Victoria Inc.

Leadership Development Forum

Free Seminar and Satay Dinner for CAV Members, Children of CAV Members and Friends

Saturday 5th September 2015 at CAV Centre, 8 Ashley Drive, Wantirna

Program

- 6.00pm Registration and Networking Drinks
7.00pm Welcome – Shirley Teh, CAV President
7.05pm Introduction to CAV
Chooi Hon Ho, Dr Frank Chew, OAM and Dr Ka Sing Chua
7.30pm Satay Dinner and Networking
8.30pm Speakers
Dr Yvonne Ho, AM – The Journey: A Chinese Australian of Distinction
Cr Ken Ong – Politics, Importance of political participation
by Chinese Australians
Ms Josephine Tan – Careers in Banking
Mr Richard Leong – Establishing an Import/Export Retail Business
10.00pm Q&A
10.30pm Closing and Door prize draw.
Coffee/Tea and Dessert

BE CONNECTED

*Networking
Mentoring
Careers
Business Growth
Wealth Creation*

Age Group
18 (or VCE) to 45 yrs old

Attire
Smart Casual

Entry by ticket only

Refer next page for details

Contact
memberservicescav@gmail.com

R.S.V.P

This seminar is free. You must be aged between 18 (VCE) to 45 years old.

All Attendees must provide full name and contact details
Phone number and email address

Please scan and email this page to memberservicescav@gmail.com

Tickets will be issued prior to the Event. Entry by Tickets only

Dear CAV Executive Committee

I would like to attend the CAV Leadership Development Forum on Saturday 5 September, 2015 at 6pm.

I am a

CAV Member. My name is .....

My Parents are CAV Members. They are : .....

My name is : .....

I am bringing the following people

.....

.....

.....

I am not a CAV member and would like to attend and bring some friends. Details below.

.....

.....

.....

Presenters

Come and meet these prominent Chinese Australians, be part of a network with highly inspirational and successful generation of younger Australians and members of the Chinese Association of Victoria (CAV).

Dr Yvonne Ho, AM Order of Australia, AAGM, MBBS, FRANZCR, FAANMS

Dr Yvonne Ho is an inspirational Speaker with parallel careers in medicine and music. The first Victorian woman to be dually qualified in radiology and nuclear medicine, she also runs the innovative Charteris Music School that operates across Melbourne. She is an Australia Day Ambassador for the Victorian Government, serves on various boards and councils, and is an expert advisor for the Federal Government. Yvonne has been awarded Order of Australia (2015), Australia Awards (2014), Victorian Women's Honour Roll (2013).

Yvonne will speak on The Journey : A Chinese Australian of Distinction

Mr Ken Ong, BE, MBA, Councillor – City of Melbourne

Ken Ong has been a Melbourne businessman and community volunteer for more than 28 years. He is Chair of Planning, and was previously Deputy Chair of Future Melbourne (People and Creative City) and (Finance and Governance) Committees. Ken also chaired the City of Melbourne's Major Projects Advisory Board which oversees Council's major capital works projects. Ken is Past President and a Life Member of CAV. His community work included serving as PRO, Federation of Chinese Association (FCA); Chairperson, Chinese New year Festival committee (1999-2000) and Finance Director, Australian Chinese Events Committee. In 2012, Ken was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award for Community Leadership by the World Chinese Economic Forum. Other Awards include the Lord Mayor's community service Award (2007); Paul Harris Fellowship Award by Rotary International (2013); Australian Intercultural Society (2015).

Ken will speak on Politics : Importance of political participation by Chinese Australians

Ms Josephine Tan, B Commerce, University of Birmingham UK.

Josephine is a Banker with over 25 years banking experience and is a Bank of Queensland franchisor in Melbourne and Docklands. She has worked for Citibank NA Malaysia in Corporate Banking and Treasury, Citibank Australia in Commercial Lending Department as Relationship Manager and HSBC Australia, Melbourne Chinatown branch

Josephine will speak on Careers in Banking

Mr Richard Leong, B Business Administration, Hawaii

Richard is an entrepreneur and a down to earth business man. He is always helping Not For Profit Organisations and often donates prizes to help charity. Richard started China-Tique (UniWorld Imports & Exports) in 1985. He specialises in oriental accessories for home. Today he supplies to hotels and commercial offices and China-Tique has featured in House and Garden, Home Beautiful, Vogue Magazines.

Richard will speak on The Business Entrepreneur : Establishing an Import/Export Retail Business in Australia.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the CAV Leadership Development Forum (LDF) is to assist the younger generation of CAV members, children and friends to advance their careers, develop their leadership capability and create a network of Professionals and Mentors with similar interest.

The following CAV members will give you a quick introduction of CAV

Mrs Chooi Hon Ho, BA (Hons), M.Admin, ALA, AALIA

Mrs Ho was the Director of Corporate Services and International Development at Monash University Library. She was also a Past President of CAV, Foundation and Life member, Foundation Chairperson of the CAV Honorary Fellows Advisory Board, and is an active champion of Multicultural Australia. Chooi Hon has been an Editor of the CAV Newsletter for 25 years and Editor of four CAV Commemorative Magazines

Chooi Hon will introduce you to CAV in a Nutshell : Role in Multicultural Australia

Dr Frank Chew, OAM, MBBS, Specialist in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, RACOG, RCOG

Dr Chew was awarded an OAM for many years of services to the Victorian Chinese community and his outstanding contributions to medicine. Until his recent retirement he was Consultant Obstetrician & Gynaecologist and Senior Research Fellow at the Melbourne University Dept. of O&G and at The Mercy Hospital for Women, Heidelberg. A Foundation and Life member of CAV, Dr Chew has served as an Association's President and Vice President. He was the Foundation Chairperson of the School Building Trust Fund and the Foundation Chairperson of the Building Subcommittee (1982-2012).

Dr Frank Chew will give a brief introduction on CAV Cultural and Education Centre.

Dr Ka Sing Chua, MBBS, FAMAC

Dr Chua is the Inaugural Fellow of Australian Medical Acupuncture (Society) College. He commenced Family General Practice and specialised Medical Acupuncture Practice from 1978 at the Rangeview Medical Surgery and Acupuncture Centre. Dr Chua was awarded GP Awards by Australian Doctors in recognition of his work and achievements in the community. He is a Foundation and Life member of CAV, Foundation Principal and Chairperson of CAV Chinese Language school and a Trustee on the School Building Fund. He was also a Past President of CAV and have served in many other community organisations such as Federation of Chinese Association, United Nations Association of Australia, Australian Republican Movement.

Dr Chua will give you a brief introduction to our Chinese Language School

Mr Simon Soon, BE (Hons), MSc

Mr Soon was an Executive CIO for three organisations over 15 years in three states, Victoria, South Australia and New South Wales. Before that, he was a lecturer in Physics at Deakin University, Engineer at EPA, ACI Fibreglass and Board of Works. Simon is a Life Member of CAV, Past President, Trustee and also Chairperson of various CAV Subgroups. He was the Foundation Treasurer of the Metropolis Lodge, Past Master of the Victoria Engineers Lodge, Life Governor of Freemason's home and Freemason's hospital. He has also served in many other Not For Profit organisations over many years and is a Member of Leadership Victoria.

Mr Simon Soon is the initiator of CAV Leadership Development Forum and is also our Facilitator.